The 22nd NKUHT Conference on Tourism, Leisure, and Hospitality (2026)

Call for Abstracts for the English Session

Conference Background and Aim

National Kaohsiung University of Hospitality and Tourism (NKUHT) is pleased to host the 22nd NKUHT Conference on Tourism, Leisure, and Hospitality in 2026. The conference aims to provide an academic platform for scholars, researchers, graduate students, and industry professionals to share research ideas, present recent findings, and exchange perspectives on current and emerging issues in tourism, hospitality, leisure, culinary arts, food culture, and related interdisciplinary fields.

The English Session welcomes abstract submissions from researchers and postgraduate students whose work advances tourism, hospitality, leisure, food and beverage management, culinary arts, food culture, and related areas. Both empirical and conceptual research are welcome. Studies with international, interdisciplinary, practical, or sustainable development implications are particularly encouraged.

Conference Topics

Submissions may address, but are not limited to, the following topics:

1. Tourism and leisure industry development
2. Hospitality and tourism management
3. Service innovation and customer experience
4. Food culture and cultural heritage
5. Culinary innovation and food product development
6. Food science, nutrition, and health
7. Sustainable tourism and hospitality development
8. Digital transformation, technology, and innovation in tourism and hospitality
9. Tourism, hospitality, leisure, and culinary education

10. Interdisciplinary and emerging issues in tourism, hospitality, leisure, and culinary arts
